How to complete the test

Each block has four statements. In the “+” column, mark the one statement that describes you most; in the “−” column, mark the one that describes you least. Answer according to your usual behavior at work and don’t overthink it: your first reaction is the most accurate. There are no right or wrong answers.

Key: which style each statement belongs to

For each block, the key shows which style statements 1, 2, 3 and 4 belong to, in the order they appear. Write the style letter next to each of your marks.

Block	Statements 1–4
1	I	D	C	S
2	C	S	D	I
3	S	C	I	D
4	D	S	I	C
5	I	C	S	D
6	S	D	C	I
7	C	I	D	S
8	D	C	S	I
9	I	S	D	C
10	C	D	I	S
11	S	I	C	D
12	D	I	S	C

23	S	I	D	C
24	D	C	I	S

Scoring

For each style, count the number of “most like me” marks and the number of “least like me” marks, then subtract the second from the first. The total ranges from −24 to +24, and the totals of the four styles add up to zero.

Style	“Most like me” marks	“Least like me” marks	Total (difference)
D Dominance
I Influence
S Steadiness
C Conscientiousness

How to determine your profile

The primary style is the one with the highest total. If the second-highest total is positive and at least 40% of the primary one (minimum 3 points), it is the secondary style. A profile is written as one letter (for example, D) or two (for example, DI: primary D, secondary I). If no total is above 2, the profile is balanced: the styles are expressed about equally.

The 16 DISC profiles

D Achiever

You head straight for the goal and move fast: you take the initiative, decide without lengthy discussion and aren't afraid of pushback. Being in control and seeing measurable results matter to you.

DI Pioneer

Drive and charm: you move quickly toward the goal and know how to bring people along. You win people over with energy and enthusiasm and make decisions on the fly, but you often run short of patience for details and caution.

DC Strategist

Results through quality: you are demanding of yourself and others, think systematically and never decide without solid reasoning. You excel at complex tasks, but can come across as cold and overly critical.

DS Doer

Persistence and reliability: you push steadily toward the goal without any fuss and finish what you start. You value independence and stability at the same time, which is a rare combination.

I Enthusiast

You get things done through people: you make connections easily, spread enthusiasm and win people over with words and energy. Recognition and lively interaction matter to you, while formalities and routine quickly wear you out.

ID Motivator

Energy and drive: your enthusiasm for ideas is contagious, and you aren't afraid to take the initiative. You easily sell ideas and goals, but you risk overestimating what you can take on and underestimating the details.

IS Mentor

Warmth and engagement: you win people over, and you know how to support them and bring them together. Relationships and atmosphere matter to you, while conflict and harsh demands are hard to take.

IC Presenter

Eloquence and precision: you can convincingly present a well-thought-out position. You combine sociability with attention to facts, but may waver between spontaneity and caution.

S Anchor

You create stability: you keep your word, finish what you start, support people and smooth over conflicts. Predictability, trust and time to get used to change matter to you.

SI Diplomat

Calm and friendliness: you create an atmosphere of trust, smooth over rough edges and support the team. Saying no and defending an unpopular decision are hard for you.

SC Specialist

Reliability and accuracy: you work methodically, follow the rules and see things through without haste. You value stability and clear expectations, while abrupt change and pressure are hard to bear.

SD Implementer

Perseverance and patience: you calmly but firmly see things through without getting caught up in needless discussion. Reliable over the long haul, though to others you may seem stubborn.

C Analyst

You rely on facts and standards: you check, analyze, plan and dislike hasty decisions. Quality and getting it right matter more to you than speed or making an impression.

CD Perfectionist

Standards and willpower: you demand precision from yourself and others, spot mistakes quickly and aren't afraid to point them out. You excel at complex expert tasks, but can be too strict and closed off.

CS Expert

Precision and consistency: you work thoughtfully, check the details and rely on proven methods. A dependable specialist who finds uncertainty and rapid change hard to handle.

CI Consultant

Analysis and connection: you can get to the bottom of a question and explain it to others in plain terms. A rare combination: caution in conclusions and ease in communication. Sometimes the inner tug-of-war between "verify" and "share" gets in the way.
